Scott R. Dickerson

Independent financial planner, Scott R. Dickerson, has over 11 years experience delivering financial services to individuals, business Owners and key executives. As an independent Representative of Navigation Financial Group, Scott combines his experience, integrity and objectivity to help find sound solutions to his client's financial needs and desires. By listening to a client's concerns and objectives, Scott helps his clients outline goals in order to develop a comprehensive plan that takes into consideration their unique needs, wants, time frames and risk tolerances.

Scott's main areas of practice are in personal financial planning and Group Retirement Plans. He began his career in Financial Services and Insurance in 1997 after receiving a BBA from Texas Tech University. His specialties include qualified plans and the compliance issues associated with such plans, personal financial planning and retirement distribution strategies. He works with individuals and businesses to develop strategies in estate planning, insurance and investment analysis, distribution planning and risk management.

Scott balances work and time with his family. He is married to Cindy and has two boys Payton and Will. He is an active member of Hillside Christian Church and Scott spends his free time practicing Tae Kwon Do, training for triathlons, golfing and hunting.
